

Memorandum of Understanding (MoUs)

H.G.M. Azam College of Education, Pune is committed to strengthening academic excellence, research culture, and holistic development through strategic collaborations with reputed institutions and organizations. The following Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs) have been established to promote knowledge exchange, skill development, and innovative practices:

1. Council for Educational Administration and Management (CEAM), Kerala

Objective:

To collaboratively organize academic and professional development activities.

Key Areas of Collaboration:

- Joint organization of seminars, conferences, and workshops
- Conduct of short-term courses and extension activities
- Faculty and student development initiatives

2. Bahá'í Academy, Panchgani

Objective:

To implement an online optional course focusing on fostering personal development and social progress among students.

Key Areas of Collaboration:

- Development and delivery of value-based online courses
- Promotion of ethical, social, and personal growth
- Student engagement in reflective and community-oriented learning

3. Agastya International Foundation, Maharashtra

Objective:

To enhance experiential learning through innovative teaching methods.

Key Areas of Collaboration:

- Training on effective hands-on learning sessions
- Capacity building for teachers in experiential pedagogy
- Promotion of inquiry-based and activity-oriented teaching

4. Abeda Inamdar Senior College of Arts, Science and Commerce

Objective:

To strengthen academic infrastructure and collaborative learning.

Key Areas of Collaboration:

- Sharing of libraries, laboratories, documentation, and instrumental facilities
- Exchange of academic resources and institutional infrastructure
- Organization of joint academic and co-curricular programmes
- Exchange of faculty and students as trainers, contributors, and visiting lecturers

5. Research Culture Society

Objective:

To promote research and academic excellence among faculty and students.

Key Areas of Collaboration:

- Organization of joint conferences, seminars, workshops, and Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs).
- Promotion of research culture and publication activities
- Academic enrichment programmes for teachers and students